reconnect
meaningfully

We feel the pains of modern city life where people are increasingly better off materially, yet less healthy and more isolated emotionally.

Thus, we want to build a lifestyle and a brand that emphasizes on high-quality, advocates for local ingredients and celebrates authentic human connection.

As a result, we created Laang as a space that helps people reconnect meaningfully via healthy food and inspiring atmosphere.

Laang is a modern, vegetarian-friendly Vietnamese restaurant in Saigon. We offer fresh ingredients sourced locally for all-day healthy dining experience.

The name "Laang" is a re-adaptation of the Vietnamese word "lặng yên", which means being still and calm among Chaos. We strive to make it space for peaceful reconnection, where people connect meaningfully with others, themselves via healthy food.

Located right in the heart of Thao Dien community, Laang focuses on providing healthy eating and drinking experience for progressive families, expats, and local residents.
